RANGELEY LAKE HOUSE.

Steamer Christine Much In Demand For Sails Around Lake.

Children Have Very Pretty German In the Casino.

[Special correspondence to the MAINE WOODS.]

RANGELEY LAKE HOUSE, RANGELEY, ME.

The weather continues fine and the steamer Christine is in great demand. Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Walsh entertained a number of friends on board; Monday evening Mrs. Moody invited a large party to enjoy a moonlight sail. A very pleasant time was spent.

A veranda whilst party was given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Dill, which was enjoyed by a party of sixteen. The first prize, a silver candlestick, was won by Mrs. Camp; the second, a pearl and turquoise clover pin, fell to Miss Stockweather and the third, a cut glass toothpowder bottle, was won by Mrs. Grand. Refreshments were served.

One of the prettiest events of the season was the children's German in the casino Saturday evening. Eighteen couples took part. During intermission refreshments were served in the billiard room.

The usual euchre party took place Friday evening and was enjoyed by all who took part. Mrs. Osterlund won first ladies' prize, Miss Brooks, second; Miss Williamson, consolation. Mr. Kimball, first gentlemen's; Mrs. Boddy, second.

Messrs. Pemberton, Elliott, Ash and Harvey returned from Kennebago Sunday.

PRIZE WINNERS AT EUCHE.

Delightful Guests Return From Their Summer's Outing

[Special correspondence to the MAINE WOODS.]

MOUNTAIN VIEW, AUG. 27, 1901.

Undoubtedly no family who visits the Mountain View House will be missed more than the Jaspers of New York City. Here for the first time last season they soon found warm friends on every side.

Miss Jasper was always very generous with her canoe and gave many of the people numerous enjoyable canoe rides. On Aug. 18, with Bert Herrick as guide, they went up Kennebago stream for the day. Bert took Miss Jasper down the Rangeley outlet stream in her canoe. She was charmed with the ride and was sorry it lasted so short a time.

Mr. Jasper was an expert amateur billiard player and although he could by no means do himself justice on the table here, yet he was not easily defeated. Everyone was sorry to have them leave and hope their acquaintanceship will be renewed here next season.

We were informed that the Jaspers expect to make a round-about route home. Going out through the lakes to Enns, they then pass through Dixville Notch thence to Colebrook where they take the train for Quebec. After making a tour up the Saguenay they will go to the Pan-American and then home.

We were also sorry to see Colonel Benson and his mother leave last Saturday. The Colonel was always a most interesting talker and highly entertaining groups on the piazza during his stay here.

A euchre party was held in the parlor last Saturday evening. Miss Young carried off the first lady's prize, Mrs. Boddy the second and Mrs. Seyrus the third. Mr. Boddy, the first gentleman's prize; Mrs. Pearce, who also played as a gentleman, took the second and Robt. Seyrus the consolation.

There have been some very good catches made lately by the fishermen of the hotel. Mr. Young brought in a string of six the other evening that averaged 14 pounds.

Mr. and Mrs. Seymour, who have been spending the month of August at the Kinco House, Moosehead lake, are expected here next Friday night for the month of September. Mr. Seymour enjoys the September fishing of Rangeley lake fully as much as any other disciple of Isaac Walton.

Mr. A. R. Montgomery and family of Brooklyn are booked here also for the month of September. They are expected to a river next Saturday night. Mr. Montgomery shot a very fine buck last September on Kennebago stream with Dan Heywood as guide and also made some good trout catches. Bert Herrick guides the Montgomerys. Mr. Montgomery is a thorough sportsman and a "big one" is not an unusual occupant of his boat as it comes in from the day's fishing.

The arrivals are: H. W. Caldwell and wife, J. G. Caldwell, R. B. Caldwell, Boston; W. J. Sherwood and wife, Brooklyn; C. H. McKenzie, Rumford Falls; E. D. Rice, Miss Rice, Springfield; E. G. Gilmore, Farmington; W. J. Henson, Stonington; G. V. Hudson, Concord, Mass.; A. L. Shuman, E. H. Holt, Sharon, Mass.; John Hennings, C. Skifford, Portland; Stephen Lee, Lewiston; John Chadwick, Upper Dan; J. D. Sturford, Portland.

Eustis Notes.

Carrie, Otto and Carl White and Elsie Tufts fished Tim Pond, Saturday, with good success. Carl Durrell of Skowhegan and Earl White caught sixty-one nice brook trout in Tim Pond.

King and Bartlett.

For spring and early summer trout fishing the King and Bartlett and Spencer Stream region has proved its supremacy. The large size, the great numbers, the gameness and the eating qualities of these clear water, spotted trout are worthy of special mention. Landlocked salmon are coming to the fly at King and Bartlett nowadays. This is the place to catch a big lake trout.

MOOSELOOKMEGUNTIC HOUSE

Birthday Parties, Euchre, Fishing and Next Cake Walk.

[Special correspondence to MAINE WOODS.]

MOOSELOOKMEGUNTIC HOUSE, HAINES LANDING, ME., Aug. 26, 1901.

If the week just closed could be recalled and again enjoyed as it has already been enjoyed, I am sure not one of the guests of the crowded Mooselookme, untill or vicinity would for a moment object, but would gladly hasten its return.

One of the most enjoyable features of the week was a grand birthday party given Friday evening, August 23, by Mrs. A. D. Vanderbilt of East Orange, N. J., in honor of her son, Mr. O. Gray's, seventeenth birthday. The party was the most nicely arranged affair that I ever saw. It was kept a secret to the young man until the last moment. All the day long Friday the young people of the hotel were kept busy preparing for the surprise. A table with a seating capacity of twenty was engaged, beautifully decorated with ferns, pansies, sweet peas and other flowers, which caused it to look like a wedding table. There was a cake in the center, lighted with seventeen small candles of different colors. The greatest task was to avoid suspicion on the part of the young man. A quiet walk was planned and carried out, but at a signal the return was begun and the young man was conducted to the dining room, where his arrival was greeted with loud cheers. Near the close of the dinner Mr. Vanderbilt was presented with a beautiful English briar pipe. Mr. F. M. Sawtelle made the presentation speech in behalf of the young people. Mr. Vanderbilt feelingly responded. The remainder of the evening was enjoyed by a grand ball in the parlor of the hotel.

There was a second birthday party given the following evening in honor of Messrs. J. H. Boswell of Greenwich, Conn., and A. J. Wormseldorf of Pottsville, Pa., whose birthdays are causing so much comment about the hotel, on account of their being in the same year, month, day and hour. These gentlemen enjoyed their birthday party with a few present.

Whist parties and six-hand euchre are occupying prominent places in the pleasure line at Haines Landing. Every evening during the week there has been an increased amount of interest shown in the above. A prominent whist player has come to light in the person of Dr. Chas. K. Briddon, the well known chief surgeon of the Presbyterian hospital of New York City. He has made an interesting addition and it is well known that Dr. Briddon is one of the best an alytical whist players in the United States.

The baseball game which was played Saturday at Redington was to have been Rangeley vs. Phillips but instead it was Haines Landing vs. Phillips. Some of the ball players of Haines Landing were invited to join the Rangeley team but upon arrival at Rangeley the boys from Haines Landing had to make a team among themselves as there was only one man from Rangeley ready to play. Many of them have had very little experience. The score was 9 to 4, in favor of Phillips. If Mr. Paul Coburn had not used

Via RANGELEY.

York's Camps. Loon Lake, within 5 miles of Rangeley village. There are ten ponds within two miles; good fishing in all and for hunting it can't be beat. Camps neat and each party has a camp by themselves. Those with families who wish to spend the summer months in the Maine woods can find no better place than York's Camps. For further particulars, address R. S. YORK, Prop'r, Rangeley, Me.

To Summer Tourists.

I opened my cottage, known as Lake Grove, situated on the shore of Webb lake, in the town of Weld, Maine, on July 1, to remain open until October 1. Plenty of pure water at the cottage, beautiful scenery and bracing mountain air. Excellent boating and splendid fishing in Webb lake. Twenty minutes walk to church. Free mail delivery. The Dixfield-Dix stage passes the door every day. Address, Miss E. S. TANTER, Dixfield, Maine.

The fishing at Haines Landing is still good. Mr. Lafayette Lentz, the son of Mr. Wm. O. Lentz, of Mauchunk, Pa., who landed a beautiful 5-pound trout last week, is having the same mounted by Nash of Maine. He is still proving himself an expert with the rod. During the week he has made several good catches which run from 1 1/2 to 3 pounds each.

Miss Bessie Boswell of Greenwich, Conn., has touched a tender spot in the hearts of some of the noted anglers of the Mooselookmeguntic House by the landing of a beautiful 64-pound salmon. This is the largest fish ever landed by Miss Boswell, but no one would think it who saw her landing the fish.

Tuesday, Aug. 27, Mr. Wilder Anthony of Brookline made a catch of a few fish, the largest a 4 1/2-pound salmon. Mr. Howard Bartlett landed on the same date and from the same boat a nice 3-pound salmon.

The above date was a record breaker as the following catches were made: Mrs. Leffert Strebeigh of New York, who is spending her vacation here with her husband, landed a nice 4-pound salmon near the hotel. A few days previously Mr. Strebeigh made a catch of a 3-pound salmon. Miss Annie F. Crane of New York, one salmon from near the middle grounds which weighed 3 pounds. Mr. A. Va derbilt of East Orange, one salmon, 4 pounds.

Mr. C. Wilmer Middleton of Germantown, Pa., has been making some good catches since his arrival. Even though his largest fish was a 3-pound salmon he has caught a good number of them.

One of the prettiest catches during the week was made by Mr. Paul Coburn of Lawrence and Miss Bartlett of Malden. During the forenoon their catch was six trout and salmon that ran from 2 1/2 to 5 1/2 pounds each.

It is expected that the first cake walk of the season will be given Thursday evening, Aug. 29, by the employees of the Mooselookmeguntic House, under the usual direction of J. S. Jones, who has conducted similar affairs in past years.

Late arrivals are: Miss Marguerite Foss, Haverhill; Miss Helen C. Osgood, Lowell; F. A. Goolue, L. G. Goolue, Andover, Mass.; Miss C. T. Crosby, Phillips; Miss Helen B. Whitney, New York; Miss Elsie T. Cheney, Edward O. Black, Mrs. Russell, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Black, South Manchester, Conn.; F. V. Bonafant and wife, Germantown, Pa.; Mrs. Wm. H. Oakford, Philadelphia; Mrs. J. C. Bradley, New York; John L. Clanton, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. H. Butler, Mauchunk, Pa.

MOOSE INCREASING.

Dead River Valley to be a Favorite Home For the Moose.

[Special correspondence to MAINE WOODS.]

STRATTON, AUG. 26, 1901.

Moose are certainly on the increase. I have not been into the sporting camps yet, but I have been around through the woods a great deal and have seen a lot of them. Many of the farmers around here have seen them also. Moose signs are very plenty through the entire Dead River valley.

I think that the most that are now here are born in this vicinity and stay here so that if they are protected this will be a great moose country in a few years.

Some find fault with the fish and game laws, but we in the fish and game region can see that they are wise and that they were put into effect none too soon. Our fish and game commissioners deserve great credit for their foresight and good work.

FRIEND.

BALD MOUNTAIN CAMPS.

Disappointed Because He Lost the Big Salmon.

[Special correspondence to the MAINE WOODS.]

BALD MOUNTAIN CAMPS, HAINES LANDING, AUG. 26, 1901.

This has been a good week at Bald Mountain and we have a new champion in the person of Mr. E. B. Newton. He has to his credit one salmon, 8 pounds; one of 2 1/2 pounds; two trout, 3 1/2 pounds and several small ones, and yet with all that he came in bawling his luck as he told the admiring crowd with that truthful, sincere face that he had hooked a salmon that would not weigh less than 15 pounds, but he got away taking his leader and all. Of course he ought to know and we believed him, but Mr. George, the defeated champion, was heard to mutter: "If that fish is there I will catch him." We await results.

Mr. Lewis A. Wallen and wife and Miss Wallen dropped in on Wednesday to spend the night on their way and were more than surprised to find their old friends, the Newtons. It is needless to say that the Wallens did not leave the next day.

The impromptu concert was held in the ladies' parlor on Wednesday. Miss Wallen presided at the piano. Solos, duets and glee songs were enjoyed by the guests.

Miss Emma Price of Stamford, Conn., arrived on Tuesday and will spend several weeks here.

Mrs. Smith and her daughter, Mrs. Richardson are the industrious people of the camp and are always on the go; that is, around the piazza and they enjoy the fish as much as if they caught them.

Mrs. F. P. Stearns after a run of hard luck, is making some good catches, among the fish being a 5 1/2 pound salmon.

Dr. Godding and wife are out every day. Mrs. Godding beats the Doctor out. She has a 3 1/2 pound salmon and several trout to her credit. The Doctor takes it with his usual good nature and says to the guests: "I showed her how to do it."

Every Sunday evening is devoted to a song service which is thoroughly enjoyed by all, Mrs. Richardson presiding at the organ.

New arrivals are: A. S. Hinds, Portland; A. E. Forbes, Paris; B. C. Carr, Melrose; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Rich, Masters, Shepard and G. G. G. Rich, New York City.

RANGELEY, AUG. 28, 1901.

As the time draws near to end our summer's outing and return to the city the attractions of this place seem to grow upon us, and as is usual in summer resorts the fun was warmer as the days grow shorter.

The guests here when not out on the lake or driving or tramping have good sport playing croquet on the lawn. We have not progressed far enough as yet to have golf links, although the fields back of the grove could easily be put in shape for this game.

Our two guests from Putnam, Conn., Messrs. Herbert J. Smith and Henry A. Wheelock are quite expert croquet players and they found sturdy opponents in Master Hart Farlee and John Philbrick and in the tandem matches the games were exceedingly close. The final match of the season was won very handsily by Messrs. Wheelock and Smith Monday afternoon, just previous to their departure for home.

Whist was the popular evening amusement and the Putnam contingent had quite a struggle with John and Frank Philbrick, honors being quite evenly divided until Monday evening, when the men from the Wooden Gables state defeated the representatives of the guests' association by the remarkable score of 32 to 15.

The occupants of the different cottages have given afternoon teas, candy and card parties which have been greatly enjoyed by the visitors.

Since the announcement of the change of ownership of this place conjecture has been rife as to the future course of the management, but nothing definite has been announced. Many of the guests who have enjoyed the great natural beauties of this place are already planning for next year's outing and are anxious that this resort shall be opened to the public. We should think it would be good policy for the new owners to declare their intentions even if they have not yet selected their manager.

Recent arrivals are: Reuben W. Wilber, guide to W. C. Carr; Chas. H. Whitte, Mr. J. M. Willste, Rochester, N. Y.; Frank Jacobs, Bangley.

LOST THE TROUT.

Clasped Hands Over Boat to Keep Heads Out of Drink.

[Special correspondence to the Maine Woods.]

REDINGTON, AUG. 27, 1901.

Fishing at Redington for the past month has been the real thing. In fact the fishing here has been the "real thing" for a number of years past but it hadn't got "out around" until lately. There were a few dozen of the regular visitors to this region who annually included this resort in their trip but this season the patronage of the place has increased materially and there have been no disappointments among those who are looking for fly fishing. There is no trouble about getting plenty of brook trout on the fly at any time.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cole of Boston, have been here for a few days enjoying the fishing and they have had excellent sport catching as many trout as they wanted at any time of day. They also had a little experience the other day that was a novelty in more ways than one. "One" was a tip over. The canoe reversed and of course Mr. and Mrs. Cole had to get out. It happened in this way: They were out fishing and landed a big trout, one of the largest ever taken from Redington pond. When he was pulled in the hook dropped from his mouth; Mr. and Mrs. Cole got nervous for fear they would lose the trout and they both made a dive for him at the same time. They made connections in the middle of the canoe, their heads bumping in a very uncomfortable manner and over they went. The "door" closed over their heads, they "landed," one on each side of the boat, and about as soon as you can say it, they both came up spouting water and grabbing for the canoe. They finally clasped hands over the boat's bottom and as they weigh over 200 pounds each, it may be imagined the upside down canoe had a contract to keep their heads above the drink. Mr. M. J. Manchester, who was fishing near by gathered the party into his boat and took them to the shore. But they lost the trout.

Mr. M. J. Manchester, agent for the Northwestern Railroad company at Plainville, Minn., who has been here fishing in company with Mr. J. Hammond Richardson of Strong, reports the fishing all that could be desired.

Chas. Mahoney of Farmington, John H. Barry, James P. Donahue, Joseph Farrell, W. H. Connors of Lowell and C. D. Farrar and D. W. Farrar of Troy, N. H., spent a short time here and found

Warden Esty Narrowly Escapes Poacher's Bullet.

[Special Correspondence to the MAINE WOODS.]

BEAVER POND, Aug. 27, 1901.

The register shows a good number of those who have made this a stopping place for a few days while traveling through the country. More people are expected in September and it is believed there will be good sport at that time.

There seems to be no lack of fish in the nearby ponds, and a visit to Long or Little Island pond for an hour or two, is rewarded with enough trout for the table.

There are four beaver living in Beaver pond this summer and some of them may be seen at any night diving about within sight of the wharf.

Two parties recently went in through Kennebag to Beaver pond, around through Whitecap and Parmachenee, returning to Rangeley by way of Magalloway.

Proprietor W. D. Grant is looking forward with contentment to the advent of the railroad line that will pass quite near Beaver pond, thus placing it within easy reach of everyone. So gratified is he with the prospect that his weight has reached 200 pounds, which indicates a peaceful mind and clear conscience.

Some difficulties have occurred between the lumbermen camping at Little Kennebag and Warden Geo. M. Esty. It was found that they were doing considerable bait fishing in the lake and stream; in violation of the State laws, and J. B. Dill, who is camping at No. 2 on Kennebag, took several photographs of them while fishing. Warden Esty got information of what was going on and came up to learn the particulars. When entering Little Kennebag in a canoe, a shot was fired across the pond by some unseen party and came rather close to his canoe. Esty visited the camps and talked with the bosses but found no one who knew who fired the shot or who had done any fishing. Of course they were very penitent and promised to cause no further disturbance.

SPRING LAKE.

People Enjoying Pure Air, Pure Water and the Fishing.

[Special correspondence to the MAINE WOODS.]

FLAGSTAFF, Aug. 27, 1901.

On Saturday the Gay party arrived, consisting of Messrs. Geo. M. Gay, F. J. Lyons and E. J. Flanagan. Later in the week they were joined by Mr. Gay's friend, W. E. Pickett. Last year Mr. Gay was so fortunate as to catch in one day a take trout weighing 10½ pounds and a salmon that tipped the scales at 5 pounds.

A party of nine took a trip from Dead River dam to Spring lake on Monday, getting here in season for dinner, returning in the afternoon. They were Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvanus Roncho, Miss Effie Roncho, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Clark.

S. B. Carville, G. M. Gay, W. E. Pickett, with L. B. Longley, guide, went to Spencer stream on a fishing trip. They caught some nice trout and got a snapshot at a bull moose. Messrs. Howe and Irwin also had a most excellent string brought from the same place on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Irwin of New York City arrived Wednesday noon of last week. In the afternoon Mrs. Irwin landed a salmon that weighed 14 pounds. This is the largest salmon that has been caught this year, only one larger fish having been taken. A lake trout that weighed 7 pounds was caught the first of the season by Warren Goodale of Clinton, Mass.

Mr. Gay has had good luck fishing. He has caught one salmon, 14 pounds; one lake trout, 34 pounds and many others averaging 24 pounds each.

Mr. Flanagan, who is an invalid, will stay four or five weeks. He thinks the pure air and spring water will work wonders.

Miss Lillie D'A. Bergh of New York City, the famous opera singer, arrived Friday for a two weeks' vacation.

Among the recent arrivals are: Frederick J. Lyons, Roxbury; E. J. Flanagan, G. M. Gay, Malden; J. B. Carville, Stratton; S. B. Longley, Flagstaff; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Richardson, New Portland; Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Savage, Pittsfield; Mr. and Mrs. Sylvanus Roncho, Miss Effie Roncho, New Portland; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Clark, New Portland; John R. Viles and wife, Dwight R. Viles, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Durrell, Blynn Durrell, Flagstaff; Mrs. Emma V. Jones, Master Charles Jones, Waterville; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Irwin, New York City; W. E. Pickett, Everett; Miss Lillie D'Angelo, Bergh, New York City; Ansel Eames, Flagstaff.

ROUND MOUNTAIN LAKE.

Partridges Are a Great Temptation to the Sportsmen.

EUSTIS, Aug. 26, 1901.

To the Editor of the Maine Woods:

Once again I find myself at Round Mountain Lake, one of the most beautiful spots in the state of Maine. Having visited many camps of this kind during the past twenty-five years, I am free to confess this an ideal spot, where I am sure to find rest, quiet and health, as well as all the appointments of a well kept camp.

I have always come in to Eustis by the way of Dead River station, but having heard so favorably of the new line to Bigelow via the Franklin & Megantic railroad, I decided to try that route and was well repaid, as the scenery is fine, the stage very comfortable, the ride being some seven miles shorter than the old line. The owner and driver, Mr. Geo. Fassett, is a genial, attentive, accommodating fellow and has a good four horse team, which brought us in to the Shaw House, Eustis before 9:30 p. m., where we were met by Host Lambert and seated at the table for the welcome meal in waiting. We discussed, at once, the supper and the delightful drive by moonlight.

The next morning we found the Round Mountain Lake buckboard, with Dexter Bunker as driver, waiting for us at 8 o'clock we made the start. I was much surprised to find the road so greatly improved since last year. Mr. Bly has made great use of time (and dynamite) to gain this end. He tells me that a few days since Mr. Blanchard of Stratton drove in with a top buggy with rubber tires.

I also find a number of improvements about the camp, a new wharf and walk, a new cabin, new roofs on several of the camps, also quite a change in kitchen and storeroom, running water in the camps, etc.

The fishing is still up to the standard for which Round Mountain Lake is noted and we have little time to rephrase or complain, for the trout are always waiting to be caught. The salmon which have been put in are now showing themselves quite frequently and before long will be a drawing card to this lake. We only go a few rods from camp to see deer and fawn every day and as for birds—Well, these partridges are an awful temptation, says more than one who is waiting for the law to be off. They are very abundant surely.

We have done the falls, a beautiful cascade on "Big Alder," fished the small stream with equal success, (a full creel.) With such lovely walks, the scenery from camp and lake and all the old friends whom we meet here, as well as many new ones, we can but be more than content, and wonder that the wheel may not continue to turn out our good fortune in as delightful a summer home.

SILVER DOCTOR.

Bear Killed at Kennebag.

[Special correspondence to MAINE WOODS.]

KENNEBAGO LAKE, Aug. 26, 1901.

For several days past Mr. Cecil de Mille of Pompton, N. J., has been on the track of a large black bear, said to be prowling in the vicinity of his camp. Returning from a successful afternoon's fishing at Flat Iron pond, Mr. de Mille saw unmistakable traces of a bear. Determining to keep the secret he took up the trail on the following afternoon.

After two hours' rough walking his attention was arrested by a rustling of the bushes in a hollow ahead. Crawling up the surrounding bank he beheld a large black object about a hundred yards ahead.

In an instant his Winchester was ready, but was as quickly lowered, as the object appeared in the lowering dusk to resemble the form of a man. As the hunter advanced the bear turned. A quick shot from the rifle sent him rolling down the hill. A second shot followed, which served only to infuriate him the more. At the third shot the bear dropped as if dead.

As Mr. de Mille approached the wounded beast rose and tore away, crashing through the underbrush. A hot chase followed until, cornered, the brute turned to meet his assailant. At such close quarters the rifle was useless, but two quick shots from an S. & W. dropped the bear dead at Mr. de Mille's feet.

FLY ROD'S NOTE BOOK

Children Enjoy Ramping Over Student's Island.

Man and His Wife Capture Salmon of Equal Weight.

STUDENT'S ISLAND, BIRCHES, Aug. 27, 1901.

This is now the time when here every camp is taken, and tents are put up to shelter those who declare, when Captain Barker tells them, "There is not a cabin on the island but what is taken, I am sorry there is no room vacant." "Why, just put up a tent and let us stay until someone goes home."

This seems to be a perfect paradise for the children, and there are some forty here, who are as happy as the little ones they read of in fairy lands.

Several camps have been built this year, among them "The Mayflower," as Mr. and Mrs. Hugh G. Brown of Boston have named theirs. Just now while Mr. and Mrs. Brown are home for two or three weeks their camp is taken by Mr. A. T. Walte of the Boston Herald, who is accompanied by his family.

There are other Bostonians here, Mr. W. C. Huston and family, who have a new little launch which takes them to all parts of the lakes.

Mr. C. W. Gardner and family of Boston are also here. Mr. Gardner is connected with the International Paper company and spends part of his time at Rumford Falls.

Judge Fuller of Taunton, Mass., is this year accompanied by his wife and daughter, Miss Mary C. Fuller.

Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Wells of New York City occupy the same camp they have had for a number of seasons. It is easy to find them for they have made it beautiful with many handsome flowers. The doctor, who is a very fine physician retired from the U. S. N., is often called to attend someone who is ill. I heard one remark, "We all feel so safe as long as Dr. Wells is with us." He goes when needed, for the kindness of a noble, generous heart, for these days should bring him only rest.

Next to the doctor are Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Kennedy and two daughters of Brooklyn, who have made the camp a host of friends. They, the eight or ten summers they have been here. Their launch, "Cricket," is always taking a happy party out for a sail.

The "Twin cottages" are taken by Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Kisson and five sons of Brooklyn, N. Y., who are here for their first season, but so much pleased are they with the place, it is safe to predict it will not be their last summer here.

From the same city come Mrs. F. T. Morrell and family.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Cooley have been most "lucky" fishing this past week. At one time they both had great sport with a salmon and when the pair were opened, they each weighed 4½ pounds. Mr. Cooley also caught a 6½-pound salmon.

Boulder Lodge has for a month been taken by the Len party six in number of Philadelphia. Mr. C. M. Lea is one of the well-known publishing house of Lea Bros. of Philadelphia.

Mrs. T. Frothingham, four children and maid are from the same city, also Mr. Justice, who have made the camp a host of friends. They, the eight or ten summers they have been here. Their launch, "Cricket," is always taking a happy party out for a sail.

Mr. T. D. Chantler and son and Mr. W. M. McGill of Pittsburg, Pa., are here for a sojourn of several weeks.

Dr. E. E. Graham and family of New York City are much charmed with the well-known life, when one has very comfort and attention.

Mr. F. A. Goodhue and family of Andover, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Morrell, E. J. Shattuck and family, Mrs. G. L. Plymouth and family of Norwood, Mass., make a happy party who find the weeks spent here crowded with pleasure.

Mrs. C. H. C. Brown and Miss Ellen N. Brown of Brooklyn, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Saunders and family, and Miss Curtis of Plainfield all think the Birches an ideal place for a summer's outing.

A party who come quite a distance from Cincinnati are loud in their praise of this part of Maine. They are Mrs. J. W. Nell and daughter, Mrs. L. N. Anderson and maid, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Sanford and Mrs. S. P. Adams.

From Rosemont, Penn., comes Mrs. L. Johnson and family, a party of six and from Minnevaska, N. Y., A. S. Patterson and family for a month at the Birches. Miss Patterson recently landed a 6-pound trout, and her friend, Miss Chas. Lin, one of the well-known swimmers, while many of the ladies swim long distances with much ease and grace.

"Going off for a picnic" is often the announcement in the morning and the guides are busy seeing that the few men and women

Jackman's New Hotel

Mr. Fred Henderson wishes to announce to friends, patrons and true sportsmen that he will open a new hotel in Jackman, Maine, for accommodation of sportsmen and summer boarders. This hotel will first-class in every respect.

The first floor will consist of Office, Private Office, Reading Room etc. The second floor will comprise Ladies' Parlor, Bath Room and Sleeping Rooms.

A good livery will be connected with the house. Excellent sports water will be furnished the guests, in fact, everything will be combined to make this an ideal spot for casting the fly or for repose during the summer months. I shall be prepared to furnish sportsmen with all necessities for camping either for hunting or fishing. This hotel is located in the center of a vast hunting and fishing region and anyone desiring fishing will do well to visit Jackman. From the hotel one can canoe miles through lakes and rivers where the scenery is unsurpassed in Maine.

This house will be open from May 1st to Dec. 15th and will be in connection with the Heald Pond Camps.

STILL FISHING NO HARM.

Hotel Proprietor Who Believes In It For Rangeley Lake.

Mr. E. B. Whorff, proprietor of the Phillips Hotel, who was for several years proprietor of the Mooselookmegguntic House and Bald Mountain Camps on Mooselookmegguntic lake, has taken some interest in the expressions of opinion in regard to plug fishing in Rangeley lake and other questions that are taken up in the petition which the fish and game commissioners will take into consideration at the hearing which is appointed for August 30.

"I know of no reason," said Mr. Whorff, "why the summer visitors should not have an opportunity to catch a few fish for table use. I do not believe in prohibiting still fishing but would favor any reasonable regulation limiting the number of the pounds to be taken by one person or by the occupants of one rowboat. Perhaps it would be well to make the number of pounds smaller than at present. Plug fishing from Hunter Cove bridge after June 1, is prohibited now, and that regulation may be all right, but I do not believe it would be wise to carry it farther than this for the reason that the summer fishermen take but few anyway and too many restrictions have a tendency to hurt the business."

Lawrence Wetherell and John S. Reynolds, with Pete Lufkin as guide, made a trip into Seven Ponds and Kennebag last week. While there they had some excellent fishing and saw numbers of deer.

Several good catches of fish have been made by the guests during the past week.

Mr. Wellman and son of Cleveland, have just returned from a trip up the Magalloway river.

Mr. F. J. Wetherell and family of Newtonville, Mass., have returned home after a stay of several weeks.

Mrs. Wellman of Cleveland broke the salmon record of the island by bringing in a fine 8-pound salmon Tuesday. It has been sent to the taxidermist to be mounted.

ALLEN CAMPMEETING.

Interesting and Instructive Services During the Week.

(Special correspondence to the Maine Woods) STRONG, Aug. 26, 1901.

The campmeeting was opened Monday evening, August 19. It was under the management of Rev. C. A. Southard, presiding elder of Augusta district. Tuesday forenoon W. E. Purinton of Rumford Centre preached a helpful sermon. In the afternoon Rev. T. N. Kewley preached. The audience was small, but the sermon was appreciated. Rev. Sewall Leech of Madison preached to a limited congregation. Usually the congregations are small the beginning of the campmeeting. Brother Leech preached a fervent and evangelistic sermon.

Rev. Wilmot P. Lord, the pastor at Farmington, was the preacher Wednesday morning. His discourse received warm commendation from those who heard him. In the afternoon Rev. Wilbur F. Berry presented the work of the Christian Civic league. In the evening he delivered a thoughtful, earnest sermon from the words "Submit yourselves therefore to God," James iv, 7. The thought of the speaker was that character would become like the force that moulded it.

Rev. C. A. Terhune, of Clark Memorial, Portland, preached Thursday morning. He took for his theme, "Love," and selected for his text Paul's memorable words, "Now abideth faith, hope and charity, but the greatest of these is charity." It was a strong sermon and the pathetic story of the redemption of Ith Marvel was as a nail fastened in a sure place.

Rev. W. S. Bovard of Congress street, Portland, one of the strong preachers of the Maine conference, preached a persuasive sermon from the text, "The Son of Man is come to seek and to save that which was lost," Luke xix, 10. He again preached in the evening from the words, "How shall we escape if we neglect so great salvation," Heb. ii, 3. Both of these sermons were lucid and tender.

Friday morning Rev. J. E. Clancy preached from Isa. xxxii, 24: "The people that dwell therein shall be forgiven their iniquity." This sermon was helpful and favorably received.

Rev. D. N. Onstot, the new pastor at Skowhegan, delivered an excellent discourse in the afternoon. His theme was "The Attractive Power of the Cross." His text was John xii, 32. In the evening he preached on the "Historical and Living Christ," taking his text from Rev. i, 18. Rev. D. N. Onstot has several fine lectures which have received favorable press comments. He may be heard the coming autumn in Franklin county.

Saturday morning Rev. B. V. Davis of Kingfield preached a sermon from the book of Jonah. It set the brethren to thinking and in their exhortations many helpful thoughts were expressed. In the afternoon Rev. E. S. J. McAllister of Pine street, Portland, preached. He is a ready and forcible speaker. He is an ardent supporter of Sheriff Pearson. Rev. T. N. Kewley preached Saturday evening to a fair sized audience.

Sunday, the great day of the campmeeting, dawned fair and warm. All day people were arriving in all kinds of vehicles. In the afternoon the number of people estimated on the ground was 900. In the morning the presiding elder preached. Everyone on the ground could hear him. He was bubbling over with enthusiasm. The sermon was enjoyed by the people. In the afternoon Dr. McAllister preached an able sermon from Jer i, 11-16. Many pointed truths were uttered with great force. The closing service in the evening was a prayer meeting. It was a fitting climax to a week of consecrated Christian work. What are the results? The immediate results may be meagre, but the faithful, intelligent presentation of Christ and his truth will not be in vain.

The weather was all that could be desired. This may account for the $136 gate receipts. The association was much pleased with Rev. C. A. Southard's businesslike management of the encampment. This year the campmeeting did not run off on a tangent. Now a precedent has been established and the association has passed a resolution prohibiting outsiders to monopolize the time. Let the resolution and the precedent be followed in the future. The pastors' wives present were Mrs. Sewall Leech, Mrs. J. E. Clancy, Mrs. W. P. Lord, Mrs. W. B. Berry and Mrs. W. S. Bovard.

Mr. L. A. Smith has completed work on the Sandy River railroad and is taking a vacation before going to his school in Norridgewood.

The Sandy River railroad has arranged another Saturday excursion from Farmington and Phillips to Rangeley. These excursions are proving very popular. A large number went up last Saturday.

The next regular meeting of the W. R. C. will be at 2 p. m. Sept. 5. Every member is requested to be present and bring a picnic supper for members of G. A. R. and corps only. Supper at 6 o'clock.

An interesting game of ball was played at Redington Saturday between the teams from Phillips and Rangeley. The Phillips team was made up mostly of the local boys. The game was very close and resulted in a score of 9 to 0 in favor of the Phillips team.

Wednesday, Mr. M. W. Harden's mother, Mrs. Lovina Harden, who for many years has shared their happy home, celebrated her 80th birthday. Her friend and neighbor for nearly seventy years, Mrs. T. C. Crosby, 82 years of age, took dinner with her.

The switchboard of the Eastern Telephone company has been removed from A. M. Greenwood's store and the Phillips subscribers are now on the Phillips line. The ring in nearly every case is the same as before. One of the Phillips subscribers, Mr. Greenwood's two, as formerly. There was an interruption of only about five minutes in the change being made.

Mrs. Triphenia B. Moulton, wife of Daniel W. Moulton, died very suddenly on Saturday after an illness of only a few days with bowel trouble. She was a native of Farmington, Me., where she was born over 72 years ago and came to Massachusetts in 1869, and had been a resident of Natick for 24 years. Beside a husband she leaves two sons, Harry W. Moulton of Natick and William H. Moulton of Cleveland, Ohio. Funeral services were held on Monday, Rev. Alexander Dight officiating, and the interment was in Dell park.

BAD BLOOD, BAD COMPLEXION.

The skin is the seat of an almost endless variety of diseases. They are known by various names, but are all due to the same cause, acid and other poisons in the blood that irritate and interfere with the proper action of the skin.

To have a smooth, soft skin, free from all eruptions, the blood must be kept pure and healthy. The many preparations of arsenic and potash and the large number of face powders and lotions generally used in this class of diseases cover up for a short time, but cannot remove permanently the ugly blotches and the red, disfiguring pimples.

Eternal vigilance is the price of a beautiful complexion when such remedies are relied on.

Mr. H. T. Shobe, 3734 Lucas Avenue, St. Louis, Mo., says: "My daughter was afflicted for years with a disfiguring eruption on her face, which resisted all treatment. She was taken to two celebrated health springs, but received no benefit. Many medicines were prescribed, but without result, until we decided to try S. S. S., and by the time the first bottle was finished the eruption began to disappear. A dozen bottles cured her completely and left her skin perfectly smooth. She is now seventeen years old, and not a sign of the disfiguring disease has ever returned."

S. S. S. is a positive, unfailing cure for the worst forms of skin troubles. It is the greatest of all blood purifiers, and the only one guaranteed purely vegetable.

Bad blood makes bad complexion. S. S. S. purifies and invigorates the old and makes new, rich blood that nourishes the body and keeps the skin active and healthy and in proper condition to perform its part towards carrying off the impurities from the body.

If you have Eczema, Tetter, Acne, Salt Rheum, Psoriasis, or your skin is rough and pimply, send for our book on Blood and Skin Diseases and write our physicians about your case. No charge whatever for this service.

Rangeley Telephone Hearing.

At Furbish hall in Rangeley last Tuesday, Selectmen H. A. Furbish and L. E. Bowley gave a hearing to the New England Telephone and Telegraph company upon their petition for a right to erect poles, etc., in the streets of Rangeley and to do a general telephone business in the town. The New England was represented by Hon. Geo. D. Bisbee, attorney of Rumford Falls and Mr. Stanford, their state of Maine manager.

Prof. J. M. Munyon of Philadelphia and Mr. H. M. Burrows, treasurer of the Rangeley Lakes Hotel company urged that the town be at least allowed the luxury of pay stations and Hon. Waldo Pettigill of Rumford Falls, who is interested in the introduction of the New England at Rangeley, answered a number of questions in regard to the matter.

For the Dirigo Telephone and Telegraph company Hon. N. P. Noble of Phillips and the general manager, Mr. Goudy, appeared.

They urged the selectmen to deny the prayer of the petitioners, stating that the business of the Dirigo, which is already at Rangeley, would be injured if another line should come to Rangeley.

The selectmen reserved their decision.

Town Votes to Accept New Road.

[Special correspondence to the Maine Woods.]

RANGELEY, ME., Aug. 28, 1901.

At a special town meeting called for the purpose the town today voted to accept the road as laid out by the selectmen from the country road to Professor Munyon's. The appropriation $100 for the purpose.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven, however, that it is a constitutional disease, and therefore, requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials Address, F. J. NORMAL OPENS.

Man Takes Overdose of Aconite and Wants to Die.

[Special correspondence to the MAINE WOODS.]

FARMINGTON, Aug. 28, 1901.

The Normal opened this week with the largest entering class, with one exception, since the foundation of the school. About eighty are expected in the entering class. The boys seem to be very much in the minority.

Monday evening Albert Gilbert took an overdose of aconite which he found in the stable where he was working. Dr. Staples succeeded in bringing him to, but as soon as he could talk he announced that he would kill himself at the first opportunity. He was closely watched through the night but made no further effort to take his life.

The residents of the hill are congratulating themselves on their success in securing a good piece of road. Not long ago Main street from Broadway down to the crest of the hill was ploughed and harrowed and then covered with gravel. Then the part on the other side of Broadway was treated in the same way. The result is that there are two strips of excellent road.

Alleged Forger Brought Before Trial Justice Dolbier.

Special Session of Grand Lodge. Crowds Present.

Fales Commits Suicide by Hanging, Tuesday Morning.

[Special correspondence to the MAINE WOODS.]

KINGFIELD, Aug. 27, 1901.

Last Friday morning occurred the hearing in the case of Samuel F. Fales of Freeman, charged with forgery. The hearing was in the selectmen's office before Trial Justice C. A. Dolbier. Fales was arrested by Deputy Sheriff W. B. Small Thursday and brought to Kingfield and put into the lockup over night.

Fales was collector of taxes in Freeman in 1900. He refused to plead when the warrant was read. The story as told by J. W. Burbank, chairman of the board of selectmen, is to the effect that late in that year he received a bill from Loring, Short & Harmon for $13.20, ordered by Chas. O. Kilkenney and to be charged to the town of Freeman. In July a bill for books to the value of $8 was received from Geo. D. Loring of Portland. Suspicion was then directed to Fales and the matter was put into the hands of Mr. Small. The books referred to had been found in Fales's house.

Justice Dolbier found probable cause and bound him over to await the action of the grand jury. It is understood that Fales secured bonds Saturday.

The event of the season was the special session of the Grand lodge of Maine, F. and A. M., for the purpose of constituting Mt. Abram Lodge, No. 204. Of the grand officers who were present there were G. M., Alfred S. Kinnball of Norway; D. D. G. M., Dr. C. F. Rowell of Wilton; S. G. W., Archie L. Talbot of Lewiston; J. G. W., Enoch O. Greenleaf of Farmington; grand treasurer, J. M. S. Hunter of Farmington; grand secretary, F. I. Day of Lewiston; S. G. S., Granville C. Perkins of Madison; J. G. S., Alfred Moore of Madison; grand Tyler, W. H. Carney of Portland; grand marshal, D. A. Gates of Dixfield, and Messrs. H. D. Smith of Norway and Arthur A. Callahan of Oxford, the latter acting as grand chaplain.

The names of the officers installed are as have already been given in the columns of the MAINE WOODS. About 200 visitors came from the surrounding towns to witness the work.

After the installation of the officers a banquet was served. The post prandial exercises were in charge of W. M. Ward S. Dolbier.

The Kingfield Water company is making improvements on their dam, blasting and clearing out the basin and making the dam larger. They are also clearing up around it. The company has had a large crew at work for more than a month. An extension of the system of over $500 feet has been made on Riverside street, three new families being furnished in this distance. This year over 3000 feet of small pipe has been used.

The town has been under the necessity of putting in a wing dam on the Salmon river about two miles to prevent the South branch from cutting into the road. Drift wood has formerly lodged here and caused the current to cut into the bank so that now the river is but a few feet from the road.

Keep the skin in a healthy condition and there will be less need of doctors and physic.—MUNYON.

I want every person who desires a perfect toilet soap or suffers with rough skin or any skin irritation to try my Witch Hazel Soap. I know that it will cure chapped hands and lips in a night. I know it will soften the roughest skin. I want every person who has a scratch, a wound or a sore of any kind to use this soap and notice how quickly it soothes, heals and cures. People who are troubled with pimples, blackheads or eczema will find this soap a blessing. I want every lady—no matter how delicate or sensitive her skin may be—to try it, for I guarantee that it will improve any complexion, no matter how fair. To those who suffer with dandruff or any scalp disease I most urgently advise the use of this soap. It will not only strengthen the growth of the hair, but will positively cure dandruff and all scalp diseases. It removes disagreeable odors from the body and keeps the skin in a healthy condition. To every mother in the land I most conscientiously recommend this article for her baby. If the little one is suffering with prickly heat, hives, chafing or rash of any sort, don't fail to bathe it in this soap. It will give almost immediate relief. In fact I have never known it to fail. I repeat, I want the public to give this soap a test, and I am positive they will agree with me that it is the best toilet soap ever made. I wish to emphasize the statement I have so often made, that SOAP IS A MEDICINE. That more or less of the ingredients get into the system through the pores and that the blood carries these ingredients to every part of the body. Soap either benefits or injures the human system. Therefore all soaps made from common fats and dangerous alkalies should be avoided. My Witch Hazel soap is absolutely pure enough to eat. It is a skin food and Vitalizer, and is superior to any French toilet soap ever placed upon the market. To all persons who are afflicted with pimples, eruptions, liver spots or facial blemishes, or who have a salow complexion, I most strongly advise taking my Dyspepsia Cure and my Boon Cure in alternation until the blood is thoroughly purified and the stomach is put into a healthy condition.

Most women have coarse, salow and rough skins, because they do not digest their food properly.

Munyon's Dyspepsia Cure tones up the stomach and gives new life and vitality to the whole system. It enables one to eat what they like and all they like. It corrects constipation. It makes the blood rich. It gives life and glow to the skin and makes the complexion look fresh and youthful. If you are nervous and can't sleep, ask your chemist for a vial of Munyon's Dyspepsia Cure.

Your nervousness will disappear, and you will not only sleep well, but rise in the morning strong and vigorous and ready for a hearty breakfast. If you wish your skin to be soft as velvet and free from pimples and all facial blemishes use Munyon's Witch Hazel Soap.—MUNYON.

At the Methodist church an excellent concert was given by Mr. and Mrs. Lederer, violinist and whistling soloist, Miss Miles as pianist and Mrs. Flora Carr as reader. The concert was under the auspices of the Epworth league.

Obituary.

MRS. DORCAS A. DODGE.

Mrs. Dorcas A. Dodge died at the home of Benj. Dodge in West Freeman, July 28th, at the age of 75 years, 5 months, 18 days. For the last twelve years she has been in poor health, and the last two or three years were years of suffering.

At the death of her husband, twenty-six years ago, she was left with a family of eight children, and with motherly affection she cheerfully applied her energies to the task of furnishing a comfortable living for them and nobly succeeded in her efforts.

In her early years she became personally interested in Christ as her savior, and soon became connected with the M. E. church. She has ever since been a devoted and supported in possession of this hope in Christ, as her savior, and at the close died full in this faith.

For the past eight years she has lived a good part of the time with her two daughters in Strong and with her brother, Abner W. Mayo of Freeman, and for nearly one year before she died she was with her two daughters in Strong or until about ten days before her death. For the past six months of her life she had been a great sufferer and often longed for that better home, where suffering would end.

While in Strong her daughters, with friends, ministered to her every want to alleviate her sufferings. She was taken to her son Benjamin's at ten days before she died. She leaves to mourn their loss seven children, four sons and three daughters; also two brothers, Abner W. Mayo of Freeman and Stephen Mayo of Skowhegan, one sister, Mrs. Ladora Butterfield of Chesterville, and many friends who will greatly miss her helpful hand in every case of want.

The funeral was at the home of Benj. Dodge, July 30, and was conducted by Rev. L. Hutchins of East New Portland. Beautiful flowers and wreaths were furnished by her daughters, from Skowhegan, other beautiful flowers and point lilies by loving friends. She was laid by the side of her husband in the cemetery near the old home in East Phillips.

A lame shoulder is usually caused by rheumatism of the muscles; and may be cured by a few applications of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by W. A. D. Cragin, Phillips; E. M. Whitney, Rangeley; Dyer's Drug Store, Strong, and Lester L. Mitchell, Kingfield.

A FESTAL DAY.

Mt. Bigelow Lodge Dedicates Beautiful New Hall.

(Special correspondence to the Maine Woods.)

FLAGSTAFF, Aug. 27, 1901.

On Friday evening Mt. Bigelow Lodge, F. & A. M., dedicated their new hall with elaborate ceremony. The grand lodge, which met at Kingfield the night before, was present. This was a gathering which Flagstaff will never forget. The village was taxed to its utmost to provide accommodations for the visitors who flocked there in large numbers. Landlord Durrell of the Lake House was equal to the occasion and made everybody happy by securing for them all that was necessary for their full enjoyment.

The hall is in a pretty little two and a half story building situated at the lower end of the street. The lodge room is on the second floor, is a large, commodious room, nicely carpeted and decorated. The decorations upon the walls are many. These, with the beautiful cypress doors and the hard pine finish, make a beautiful room. The banquet hall overhead is large and conveniently seats a hundred.

In the evening a short session was held for the Masons. Then the doors were opened for their families. S. W. C. L. Rodgers called the meeting to order in the absence of W. A. Grant Fuller, and the grand lodge which was in waiting, was duly introduced and their session opened in due form. G. M., Alfred S. Kimball of Portland, presiding.

After the dedicatory services, G. M. Kimball complimented Mt. Bigelow lodge on their success and upon their having such a fine home. Short addresses were made by P. C. M. E. L. Day of Lewiston; D. D. C. M., Archie L. Talbot of Lewiston; acting grand marshal, H. D. Smith of Norway and Augustus Simmons, Esq. of Nor. Anson. The ladies of Somerset Chapter, O. E. S., then took a hand and invited the assembled brethren to repast in the new banquet hall. Here ample justice was done and the ladies of Kingfield will now always be remembered by those who partook of their excellent cooking. A social hour was then enjoyed in the lodge room.

Letter to W. E. Millett,

Phillips, Maine.

Dear Sir: One coat of Devoe is better than two of mixed paint.

The American House, at Tannersville (Catskill Mts.), N. Y., Chas. L. Wiltse, had two coats of Mixed Paint five years ago; last spring had two more coats of the same.

Owner was going to use Devoe but got his Mixed Paint a few cents less.

Right across the street, Charles Haner painted one coat of Devoe at the same time—last spring.

The Haner house is the better job; but wait five years.

The point of the story is that Wiltse is sorry already. He has learned something that not one man in a thousand knows—that a gallon of one kind of paint can contain twice as much paint as a gallon of another kind of paint.

You can't afford to put on another paint even if you have it given to you. At the same time, you see, that Mixed Paint appears to have worn five years—give the devil his due.

Yours truly,

F. W. Devoe & Co.

P. S. W. A. D. Cragin sells our paint in your section.

For Next Week.

Next week will appear a story of the exposition at Buffalo from the standpoint of Grand Trunk railroad system.

An account of the annual reunion of the Walker family reached us too late for publication and will be printed next week.

Poem Read at West Phillips Reunion by D. F. Hodges.

I.

I want a subject, an uncommon want; At least so Byron thought until Don Juan. Forsook his mother's arms—this is no faint— And sought his way in life but not the true.

Yet a poor farmer here in o'eraxed Maine Some kinds of subjects need not want in vain.

II.

But which among them must I seize and wing Its pincher-armed neck, until it strangles, In vain attempt to make it sweetly sing In dulcet tones, all free from party wrangles?

Taxes—Maine Law—Game—Fish—or Orono? Imagine them all marshalled in a row!

III.

I might try this to help me in my need— I might try this—some rhyme about the Grangers;

But politicians made the Granger's creed— I dare not try such theme of many dangers; For politicians with their crafty views Shut out all things their own plans cannot use.

IV.

Hill farmer's muse! come down from Saddle Luck Or "Gospel Hill," (thy home is no great matter)

And help me while my tired brain I rack In vain attempt to make it sweetly sing That I for brief some kind attention gain— The only guard-in for my minstrel pain.

V.

'Tis said 'a little nonsense now and then' (I know not how 'twas said so, and don't care)

'Is often relished by the wisest men,' And also one may hope by ladies fair; But let me add what now my sport doth rob Is trying to write jingles by the job!

VI.

Per diem I might have called it but 'twould spoil the rhyme;

A half a dozen times I've spoiled the measure— But that's been done by others ere my time, So here, as lawyers say, "we rest," least your displeasure Should send my grass-seed strain down Let's dele.

And thus no poet's laurels with me bide!

VII.

Just now I called this jingle grass-seed rhyme, There's no such word as "hayseed," "Do you see?"

That's only used by city chaps sublime When they refer to us—to you and me. So having combed this Alsike from my hair I hope my coming verse will be more fair.

"Hail to the land whereon we tread!" Thus said a poet long since dead!

To that fair land we go, and life we see; Safe with the great majority;

And we almost his words repeat— Hail to the land whereon we meet!

Hail to our mountains, streams and flowers, Our wood-crowned hills, our timber hours, Hail August, month of promise too, Hail the old—old—hail the new.

Here, where your fathers led the way, Here, where your mothers knelt to pray, Here, where once roamed your youthful feet, Hail to the land whereon we meet.

Back through the portals of past years To boyhood, girlhood, smiles and tears, On memory's wings you sail your way And bring the past to the to-day.

Once more reliving these long dim joys Change gray heads into girls and boys; O'd hearts forget some hours of pain, And here to-day grow young again.

The old road winds its former way, The stream sings its old roundelay, The old hills guard its green-fringed shore Just as they did in days of yore;

And it sometimes these should seem strange And us, not these, has been the change. On the steep hillsides beneath their feet And borne by the pure western breeze, The white clouds sail across the sky;

While bosky glens in shadows lie Where just of late the pipers' boys, Just as of old when y'a were boys! The lassies swing their dimer pails On way to school; and on the glens Come laughing and singing in merry swirls As in those days when you were girls. O'd Saddleback sleeps in the sun, And here to-day grow young again.

And oftentimes when the day is done Is rudely "wakened from his rest" By heaven's artillery from the west; And from his slumbers where we wake him Come belching thunder and roar and roar As the intervening hills, And many a soul with reverence fills.

Al! happy days of trusting youth! Then all seems fair, when all seems true! The best of life is touched by pain Alas! ye never come again; Unless in some sweet reverie Ye come, a loving memory.

Al! human life, how swift the flight, From cradle's dawn to age's dark night! That art incarnate in our flesh and bone As deep as death's from which we flee. We seek of some things from their source And learn that thought is the soul's force. Sometimes we think we're in a dream— The memory of some past life's gleam; And oft repeated o'er and o'er The new seems something known before!

Our thoughts fly strangely off afar Beyond the sunsets' flame-lit bar; And when in Silence's realm we dwell O'er us is thrown the "wondering spell" Of subtle thoughts we never fathomed teach Some truths too high for words to reach; We hear, forgetting earth and time, The music of another clime, And see, if we but see aright, The shining of transcendent light.

Again we pause—and list within A deep, an awful questioning, And read amid earth's gathering gloom That question written on Huxley's tomb, With by a wide light we try and brave— "Is there no nexting past the grave?"

Hark to the answer of the thought From depths where thoughts deep secrets roll—

If after death there be no life, With joy for him, with peace for strife, If we go to oblivion's shades, We of God's great works noblest made—

And rest as nothing in the wreck Of countless worlds in ruin's sack, Then this counsel we must take— The Cosmos is one huge mistake.

Here, in this life, sweet mercy waits By couch of pain and prison gates, Here, mother's love so wild and deep Holds safe her little lamb asleep, Here, we forget, forgive, and love, In spite of wrongs that once did move Our souls to wrath. Is not The Cause— The Causeless and His perfect laws More kind, more wise, more just than we Offspring of His infinity?

So run my thoughts; and once again— Some other thoughts—but I refrain Half coward-like, least here they would Be out of place—misunderstood; For Love and peace may tell us why Dame Prudence ne'er should shut her eye; Things great—grand—mean—all man e'er saw Ne'er go by luck—all goes by law.

Of all the members of the soul None is so subject to control By little things we hear and see As loving, lingering memory. A rose, a voice, a smile, each may be The little power forgot until It captures heart's memory at its will! Some loving eyes our dreams bend o'er. Some faithful hands, which work no more, Are seen with eyes o'er which a mist Comes unawares like Angel's tears! Some smiles—some prayers—some joys—some tears

Come back again from long past years, And then—we turn our sight from earth Wondering we never knew their worth.

The rose was never half so sweet 'Till it lay withered at our feet; The song that thrills us o'er and o'er Is the lost song, and we deplore More deeply than all lost to-day The things long lost, and far away.

But here one word e'er you and I Shall clasp the hand and say good-bye: Though Emersonian, it may be To some a new philosophy— For every single thing we've gained We've every single thing we've lost! We've something gained—"O'er of cost?" I said not so, "Yet this is true."

Of each of all—both old, and new: This truth which Epictetus saw Is compensation's changeless law.

Hark to our souls' best words once more Repeated to us o'er and o'er: In pleasure's mine, in sorrow's night In everything—Trust God, do right; And o'er and o'er repeat the word Try to do right, and then—Trust God.

We meet and part in joy, or pain We hope that we may meet again. Fond longing, and we must part, And make each friendship doubly dear, And weave o'er all her magic spell, And meet and part—Hail and Farewell.

TALK OF NORTH FRANKLIN.

—Mr. Carl Cragin was in Rangeley the first of the week.

—Geo. Winslow attended the Masonic meeting at Kingfield Thursday night.

—Mrs. Myrtle Pratt Myers of Everett, Mass., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Ross.

—Mr. Ed Keniston fished near Sluice hill, below Redington, Friday and took about 12 pounds of trout.

—Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Clancy and daughter have returned from their vacation. Mr. Clancy occupied his pulpit Sunday.

—Mrs. L. S. Goodwin, Mrs. N. S. Rice and Miss Barbara Rice returned to Boston last week after a visit at Mrs. J. M. Wheeler's of several weeks.

—Ezra McKee had a cancer drawn out last week. There is still another one which should come out. Dr. J. H. Rollin was on the street with a paper after substantial sympathy for the sufferer the other day.

—Mrs. Chas. E. Baker and two daughters, the Misses Jessie and Edith, of Melrose Highlands, came to H. M. Butterfield's last week for a three weeks' vacation. Miss Edith will go back to Wellesley in September and Miss Jessie will resume her duties in the Boston Kindergarten.

—The great Maine State Agricultural society holds its annual exhibit at Lewiston, Sept. 3, 4, 5 and 6, and is undoubtedly the greatest strictly agricultural fair in New England. The various industries of the great commonwealth are there brought together and placed on exhibition for premiums or purses. No lover of stock, admirer of horses or person interested in the agriculture of the state should miss the opportunity to visit this great fair. The great fireworks display, entitled "The Last Days of Pompeii," is well worth the admission of the entire fair. The day admission tickets will be 75 cents, with an evening coupon attached, which will be redeemed at a booth outside the gate in case the purchaser does not wish to attend the fair in the evening.

—Perhaps the most thoroughly "practical" joke of the season was played on Charles McCrackin, brakeman on the Phillips & Rangeley mixed train, Thursday afternoon of last week. When he made his trip down his vest hung up in the baggage car and in it was his watch. To "get at him" a little, Bob McMullen, who is brakeman on the Sandy River line from Phillips to Farmington, removed the watch and passed it over to Bert Millett to keep until McCrackin had worried enough. But McCrackin was very prompt to take action and before he advertised the loss very much he found two young men who were passengers on the train down from Rangeley and had them taken to Beedy's law office and there searched. This feature of the case didn't develop until it was too late for Millett to turn over the watch in season to prevent it.

—The Dorothea Dix Memorial association held their third annual fair at Hampden, Me., the birthplace of Miss Dix, Oct. 23 and 24. The object of these fairs is to raise funds for purchasing the home farm. It is hoped at this time to complete the amount. All friends of the cause and all who would preserve to future generations the birthplace of the great philanthropist, are invited to contribute. Inexpensive, useful articles are most desired, such as aprons, handkerchiefs, bags, household articles, bits of hand made lace, etc. Sons and daughters of Maine living in other states are particularly invited to contribute. A small piece of netting from a Maine woman living in Ohio, made in her hundredth year, has recently been received. It will be sold to the highest bidder. All articles may be sent to the treasurer, Mrs. Jane H. Spofford, Hampden Corner, or to the president, Mrs. Helen Coffin Beedy, 208 Essex St., Bangor, Me.

—The Stevens reunion, by invitation, was held at the home of M. J. Stevens, Stratton, Saturday, August 24, in honor of the aged father; C. D. Stevens, who is now eighty years of age. Mr. Stevens has seven children and twenty-two grandchildren now living, four of whom live in the Dead River region, one son, B. P. Stevens, now in trade at Kingfield, Mrs. E. D. Treell of Philadelphia, Pa., and Mrs. Lee B. Jones of Waterville.

Mr. Stevens lives with his son, his wife having died about ten years ago. All but two children and six grandchildren were present at the reunion. The oldest daughter, Mrs. Lee B. Jones, with her daughter, was present and is making her first visit here for five years.

One guest who seemed to enjoy herself and was enjoyed by all was Mrs. Lois Smith, a lady eighty-two years of age, who is now in good health, memory as good as at the age of twenty-two and as spry as most people of the age of fifty years.

About thirty-five partook of the bountiful feast of hulled corn, cake and fruit. The rest of the day was spent in busy chatting by the older people, while the children passed the day in playing game, a general good time. At about 4 p. m. all returned to their homes feeling well paid for the visit and hoping to meet a larger number next year.

—Raymond Whitney and friend have been visiting at Mrs. Julia Whitney's for a short time.

William Walker from Woodville, N. H., has been visiting his father, O. P. Walker, and family.

Miss Eula Hinds visited at Orrin Tufts's, Kingfield, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Eben Reed and daughter are visiting relatives and friends in and around Stratton. They were former residents of Eustis, but now of Aroostook county.

Mrs. Grace Savage has gone to Portland for a few weeks.

Blake, the seven-years-old son of A. M. Jones, had the misfortune to break his leg just above the knee. Dr. Brimington set the bone and he is doing as well as could be expected.

L. T. Hinds and Mrs. J. C. Danico each lost a nice cow recently by getting poisoned.

Mrs. L. P. Dudley and little son, Llewellyn, of Freeman are visiting at J. P. Dudley's.

The young people of Stratton played the drama, "A Family Affair," Saturday evening for the benefit of the band.

Mrs. Anna Stevens Jones and children are visiting relatives and friends.

Chesterville.

Mrs. C. W. Keyes of Farmington, who has been stopping with her sister, Miss Eva O. Park, for a few days, had the misfortune to fall out of a hammock while she was here and fracture her collar bone. Dr. Head set the fracture and she is doing as well as could be expected. This is the third time she has fractured her collar bone.

M. J. Trafton is taking a week's vacation at his nephew's, A. M. Dyer, at East Harpswell.

Dr. B. O. McIntire and family have returned from their visit at Litchfield and they start for their home in Carlisle, Penn., this week.

Deer are seen quite often around here.

A large number from this place attended the campmeeting at East Livermore last week.

A lot of the young people had a corn roast in Henry Judkins's pasture last week and all had a very nice time. There were about sixty present.

MUNYON'S RHEUMATISM CURE

When Prof. Munyon says his Rheumatism Cure will cure rheumatism there isn't any guesswork about it—there isn't any false statement about it. It cures without leaving any ill effects. It is a splendid stomach and nerve tonic, as well as a specific cure for rheumatism.

All the Munyon remedies are just as reliable, specific. The Guide to Health is free. Munyon, New York and Philadelphia.

ASTONISHED THE EDITOR.

Editor E. A. Brown of Bennettsville, S. C., was once immensely surprised. "Through long suffering from Dyspepsia," he writes, "my wife was greatly run down. She had no strength or vigor and suffered great distress from her stomach, but she tried Electric Bitters which helped her at once, and, after using four bottles, she is entirely well, can eat anything. It's a grand tonic, and its gentle laxative qualities are splendid for torpid liver." For indigestion, Loss of Appetite, Stomach and Liver troubles it's a positive, guaranteed cure. Only 50c at W. A. D. Cragin's.

A little light work should not make a woman's back ache— And it wouldn't if the kidneys were right.

Sick kidneys are to blame for three-fourths of the pain and misery in this world.

If all the kidneys in the world could be made strong and healthy, back-ache would disappear like magic.

Doan's Kidney Pills

Are making weak kidneys just as fast as people let them. They never fail. Have cured thousands of men and women.

Read this testimony of their merit.

Mrs. J. F. Jencks, of 532 Bank street, wife of the foreman at the Brown Carriage Co., New London, Ct., says:

"It took five or six boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills to radically cure me of backache, in the month of 1898, and all I can add to the statement I gave at that time for publication in your New London papers is, the cure then effected has been permanent. I am constantly and as emphatically endorsing Doan's Kidney Pills today as I did when they were first brought to my notice over three years ago. My advice to anyone suffering from either weakened or over-excited kidneys is to procure Doan's Kidney Pills at a drug store, take a course of the treatment, and the results promised will inevitably follow."

Doan's Kidney Pills for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

GRAY STREAKS

Why let all your neighbors and friends think you must be twenty years older than you are? Yet it's impossible to look young with the color of 70 years in the hair. It's sad to see young persons look prematurely old in this way. Sad because it's all unnecessary; for gray hair may always be restored to its natural color by using

AYER'S Hair Vigor

For over half a century this has been the standard hair preparation. It is an elegant dressing; stops falling of the hair; makes the hair grow; and cleanses the scalp from dandruff.

$1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

"I have been using Ayer's Hair Vigor for over 20 years and I can heartily recommend it to the public as the best hair tonic in existence."

Mrs. G. L. ALDERSON, Editor, Tex., April 24, 1899.

If you do not obtain all the benefits you expect from the Vigor, write the Doctor about it. Address, Dr. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass.
